

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Loren J. Larson Jr.,
Appellant,
v.
State of Alaska,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13758

Order
Strike Portion of Appellee's Excerpt

Date of Order: 11/4/21

Trial Court Case No. 4FA-19-01530CI

The Appellant, Loren J. Larson Jr., who represents himself in this appeal, has filed a motion to strike pages 1 through 6 of the State's excerpt. Larson, relying on Appellate Rule 210, explains that these documents were not submitted to the trial court in this litigation. The State has not filed an opposition.

Because Appellate Rule 210(a) does not allow material never presented to the trial court to be added to the record on appeal, the motion is GRANTED; pages 1 through 6 of the State's excerpt shall be struck from the appellate record. The Clerk of the Appellate Court is directed to file a copy of this order with the Clerk's copy of the State's excerpt. The Court will strike pages 1 – 6 from its copies of the State's excerpt and will not consider these pages in its resolution of this appeal. The State need not submit an amended excerpt.

Entered under the authority of Chief Judge Allard.
