MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE OVERLENGTH PETITION FOR REVIEW

The Municipality of Skagway Borough and Brad Ryan (“Petitioners”), through their counsel, Brena, Bell & Walker, P.C., hereby move the Court for leave to file an over-length Petition for Review comprised of fifty-seven pages. This Motion is supported by the Affidavit of Jon S. Wakeland filed concurrently herewith.

In accordance with the Court’s Scheduling Notice dated February 22, 2022, petitions that exceed 50 pages must be accompanied by a motion to accept over-length. The over-length Petition for Review is necessitated by the underlying points on appeal and the subject matter, which calls in to question the legal and factual basis of the Board’s plan as accepted by the trial court’s final order. The Petition necessarily includes a detailed discussion of the legal standards and relevant facts, which could not be fully provided to this Court in a pleading limited to 50 pages even with substantial efforts at reduction. A proposed order accepting the Motion to Accept Overlength Motion is provided for the Court’s signature.

1. I am an attorney with the firm of Brena, Bell & Walker, P.C., counsel for Petitioners in the above-entitled action.

3. Counsel has made diligent efforts to reduce the length of the Petition for Review in order to make the necessary points to support Petitioners' assertions in this matter; the Petition has necessarily expanded beyond the 50-page limit set forth in the Scheduling Notice dated February 22, 2022.
