

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Loren J. Larson Jr.,
Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-14004

Order

Date of Order: 7/1/2022

Trial Court Case No. 4FA-96-03495CR

Before: Allard, Chief Judge and Harbison and Terrell, Judges.

On June 3, 2022, the Appellate Clerk's Office received opening paperwork from Loren Larson, who was attempting to initiate an appeal under Appellate Rule 204 of a trial court order dated May 25, 2022 in a case that was closed many years ago. An appellate case number was assigned for tracking purposes only. At our request, the parties filed memorandum addressing whether an appeal could be initiated under Appellate Rule 204 given that the order was issued in a closed case that had not been reopened.

We agree with the State that the trial court's order, which denied Mr. Larson's "Expedited Motion Under Criminal Rule 16(d)(8)" in a closed case, does not constitute a final order for purposes of AS 22.07.020(e) and Mr. Larson therefore has no right to appeal the order under Alaska Appellate Rule 204. We further conclude that to the extent Mr. Larson seeks to petition for interlocutory review of the order, that petition is DENIED. This matter will therefore be closed.

Entered at the direction of the Court.
